GRAND KNIGHT'S CORNER

Warmest Greetings to All,

Has it really been five years since the tragic events of 9-11 unfolded? This momentous day is scarred in the memory banks of us all. I recently went to see the movie, "World Trade Center," with my wife Julie. I never anticipated enjoying the movie that I was about to view. Rather, I felt a sense of obligation to witness the brave heroics of those who willingly lay their lives on the line for us daily. Their sacrifice is close to that of God's only Son, for they never know when it may come or how, they just do it! Yet, they are as human as the rest of us, but they are willing to risk it all to save the least among us. The most poignant part of the movie was that when these two brave men were trapped under the rubble of the twin towers, they kept going back in their minds to their Family and that is what pulled them through. Believe it or not, there is even a scene where Jesus and the Sacred Heart are displayed!

My Brothers we are at war on many fronts. You, yes I am talking to you personally, can make a difference. Our Nation is under attack from both inside and out. The Knights of Columbus has always been and will remain at the forefront

CHAPLAIN'S COUNSEL

It is a warm sunny afternoon in August as I sat in front of my keyboard, wondering what to write about for this article. As I sat there, the thought came to me how far technologically we have come in the past 20 years or so.

I can sit here in my home typing this article and in a few minutes transmit it to the editor of the newsletter without ever leaving my chair or speaking to anyone. While in the information age, this is marvelous and without peer, from the perspective of human contact, of being with my neighbor, of communicating with him, of building community with him, of sharing the Jesus that is in my soul with him, this technology leaves a lot to be desired.

While we embrace the technological advances, we must always be mindful of the need we have . . . of the responsibility we have . . . of the obligation we have, to be proclaimers of the Word of Christ . . . of being the eyes, ears, hands and feet of Christ to our neighbors in our homes, in our neighborhoods, in our communities and in our world. And that, my brothers and sisters, demands in my opinion, human contact, of "pressing the flesh" so to

PROGRAM ACTIVITIES

DIRECTOR'S NOTES

August was the month for Membership and Program Seminars in the Maryland Jurisdiction. The Council officers and directors attended the seminars and are motivated to make our Columbian year one of the best ever. We are very fortunate to have a good mix of young and experienced, dedicated brothers leading our Council.

The Friday night movie experience is alive and well. We look forward to Joe's next youth event. His last movie introduced our new 42" Plasma T V Set.

Keith Elliott is promoting the car raffle sales in our council. Keep in mind that our council retains $0.60 of each ticket sent to you. Maybe you can sell an extra ticket or two to your neighbor or relative. The proceeds from the ticket sales go a long way to help us finance our charity program. He has many extra tickets if you need them. Keith is a busy person. He also is the chairman for our crab feast. Details are elsewhere in this newsletter. Please do not wait until the last minute to purchase your tickets.

A very special THANK YOU goes to brothers John Billet and Armedee Dean for their contributions to our Monday maintenance program. If you care to participate please call John Gramling or Bill Santo for details of our ever-growing number of projects.

On your next visit to the council home take a look at the new plaque honoring our deceased members. This was the painstaking work of brother Bob Sippel, thank you Bob.

Bill Santo, PGK

COUNCIL ACTIVITIES

The new 1st degree was again exemplified on August 16th by the Council degree team. Fr. McGivney would have been proud of this presentation to 3 candidates. New members needing 2nd degrees are being contacted and being escorted to those councils holding 2nd and 3rd degrees. We are continuing our search for brothers to serve as back up presentors on the degree team.

Please advise PGK Deacon Gramling or myself if you would like to be part of this illustrious group of brothers.

Vivat Jesus!

Al Hogarth August 12th

Belated Anniversary:

Leann & Robert Van DeVaerst - August 29th

Joe Falcone would like to make it known that his and Lil's Anniversary in July was their 59th. Congratulations!

Summer's coming to an end and vacations are about over. How about spending a few hours on the 1st & 3rd Wednesday of each month with your Brother Knights. The 3rd Wednesday is our social meeting and spouses and friends are invited to attend and hear our guest speakers and spend some time afterwards socializing. As the announcer says on "The Price Is Right"..... COME ON DOWN !!!!!

YOUTH ACTIVITIES

Thanks to all that helped and participated in our second annual movie night. I hope you all enjoyed Cinderella Man and Herbie-Fully Loaded. I continue to urge all Knights to continue to involve your families, children, and grandchildren in these events. Please be proactive in making them aware of our events, so they can block out these exciting events on their calendars, as we do on ours.

With that in mind, we will be scheduling a Soccer Shootout in the late September/October time frame, with details to follow. We have already scheduled a Halloween Party for October 29th. In addition, our Children's Christmas Party is scheduled for December 22nd. Please ensure that you put these dates on your calendar, and let me know that you are coming so we prepare accordingly. If you can provide any help or have suggestions on how to make the events even better, please let me know. I look forward to seeing all of you there.

PRO-LIFE ACTIVITIES

CHURCH ACTIVITIES

We recently held our July 30, 2006 — 5th Sunday Mass and breakfast at the Council Home following Mass. The Mass was celebrated by Rev. Roque Lim, who is an Honorary 3rd Degree Knights of Columbus Brother. He has been living at St. Joseph Parish for about a month and gives a very good sermon. He seemed very interested in the KC. Monsignor Paul Cook and Fr. Lim were both invited by me to attend the breakfast. They each thanked us and said another time. Fr. Lim also recognized the Father O'Neill Council from the pulpit.

I would like to thank the following Brothers for their support: Cooking; Chef Bob Kane; Ken & Rosemary-shopping and preparation; Joe Salvaggio-preparation.

Attendees: Ed Bollinger, Ned Hanna (new member), Joe & Lil Falcone, Al & Mary Mohr, Clarence & Juanita Fowler, Bill & Eleanor Meyers and daughter Susan, George & Eileen Hogan, Ed & LaRue Oster, John & Inez Kane, Dilip Paliath, Don & Judy Lagator, Bob & Dottie Sippel and daughter Connie, Carl & Nancy Lenhoff, Joe Stout with daughter Mary & son Spencer, Rich & Mary Jo Lewandowski, Charlie & Gert Vlk.

I realize that I promised a certain menu but did not deliver on the 13 minute DIY omelet. This will be featured on an up coming 5th Sunday.

Thanks to everyone for his or her help and/or participation. You are welcome to e-mail me with comments and/or suggestions.

Church Activities Director

You Wouldn't Even Ask

(Fr. Frank Pavone, National Director, Priests for life)

If a candidate who supported terrorism asked for your vote, would you say, "I disagree with you on terrorism, but where do you stand on oilier issues?"

I doubt it

In fact, if a terrorism sympathizer presented him/herself for your vote, you would immediately know that such a position disqualifies the candidate for public office — no matter how good he or she may be on other issues. The horror of terrorism dwarfs whatever good might be found in the candidate's plan for housing, education, or health care. Regarding those plans, you wouldn't even ask.

So why do so many people say, "This candidate favors legal abortion. I disagree. But I'm voting for this person because she has good ideas about health care (or some other issue)."

Such a position makes no sense whatsoever, unless one is completely blind to the violence of abortion. That, of course, is the problem. But we need only see what abortion looks like, or read descriptions from the abortionists themselves, and the evidence is clear. (USA Today refused to sell me space for an ad that quoted abortionists describing their work because the readers would be traumatized just by the words!)

Abortion is no less violent than terrorism. Any candidate who says abortion should be kept legal disqualifies him/herself from public service. We need look no further, we need pay no attention to what that candidate says on other issues. Support for abortion is enough for us to decide not to vote for such a person.

Pope John Paul II put it this way: "Above all, the common outcry, which is justly made on behalf of human rights — for example, the right to health, to home, to work, to family, to culture is false and illusory if the right to life, the most basic and fundamental right and the condition for all other personal rights, is not defended with maximum determination" (Christifideles Laici, 1988).

False and illusory. Those are strong and clear words that call for our further reflection.

"I stand for adequate and comprehensive health care." So far, so good. But as soon as you say that a procedure that tears the arms off of little babies is part of "health care," then your understanding of the term "health care" is obviously quite different from the actual meaning of the words. In short, you lose credibility. Your claim to health care is "illusory." It sounds good, but is in fact destructive, because it masks an act of violence.

"My plan for adequate housing will succeed." Fine. But what are houses for, if not for people to live in them? If you allow the killing of the children who would otherwise live in those houses, how am I supposed to get excited by your housing project?

It's easy to get confused by all the arguments in an election year. But if you start by asking where candidates stand on abortion, you can eliminate a lot of other, questions you needn't even ask.

Fraternal Benefits

“I already have insurance at work.”

Many jobs offer some form of group life insurance. Often, this insurance is an employee benefit provided at no charge, or for a small co-pay. Knowing that this coverage exists may convince someone that he doesn't need to discuss personally owned life insurance with an agent. That could be a mistake.

Most forms of group life insurance are limited in amount. That amount may be tied to a salary or some other benchmark, but often there is a cap. That cap may be dangerously low for your family's needs should you die. In fact, without a needs analysis (which I'll be happy to provide, free of charge), it may be completely unrelated to needs at death. In addition, the amount of group insurance offered is almost always reduced – and sometimes dramatically – when you retire.

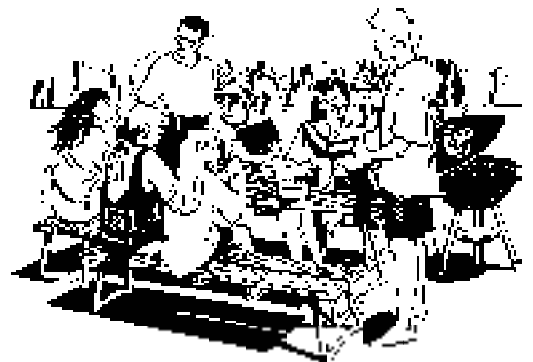

Especially today, there is the very real possibility that you could lose your job. Or that your benefits could be reduced. In either case, you can find yourself without coverage. If your health has changed in the meantime, you can find yourself out of luck.

While group life helps, it does not replace the need for individually owned life insurance. I'll be happy to meet with you and provide a free, custom-tailored needs analysis, so that you'll know exactly where you stand. Please give me a call.

Faithful Christians, Faithful Citizens

“Every voice matters in the public forum. Every vote counts... We encourage all citizens, particularly Catholics, to embrace their citizenship not merely as a duty and privilege, but as an opportunity meaningfully to participate in building the culture of life.” (United States Bishops, “Living the Gospel of Life,”n.34)
